Girls Spring Showcase - March 24, 2012

Over 20 female players made the trip to Central Georgia to showcase their skills in the Girls Spring Showcase sponsored by Southern Prep Hoops hosted at Georgia Military College in Milledgeville, Ga. on March 24, 2012. Each player was ready to showcase their skills against other players from the surrounding areas with enthusiasm. Coach Lunsford was very excited about the quality and level of players in attendance as they were evaluated through drills and games. The camp held a classification game where the Classes of 2012 and 2014 were pitted against the strong class of 2013. It was an exciting game with Class of 2013 being victorious 54-52 in a thriller. This is just a clear indication of the level of play that is on the horizon for girls basketball within the next 3 years. The afternoon session consisted of all players being split into 4 evenly balanced teams for the round robin games. This produced the greatest excitement for the players and their assigned coaches with all games being hotly contested. Several players had noteworthy performances highlighted by the play of sophomore guard Ngozi Ware of Baldwin HS and senior post Kizzie Coleman of Monroe HS. These two players stood out to the coaches and evaluators in

Boys Spring Showcase – March 25, 2012

On Sunday, March 25, 2012, Southern Prep Hoops was back at it again. This time they were hosting the boys from the surrounding Central Georgia area. Approximately 30 boys appeared to perform for the coaches and evaluators in attendance. Needless to say, the staff was not disappointed. The boys showed glimpses of what was to come during the drills session by performing several eye opening moves and shots. However, things got heated up pretty quickly in the classification game held right before lunch. The seniors and juniors put on a show for the under-classmen in attendance, battling to a tie in their game. Then, the sophomores and freshmen took the floor with an enthusiastic game resulting in the freshmen winning 58-54 in a nail biter. After lunch, the players were divided into 4 evenly balanced teams for the round robin session. The teams put on a dazzling display of skills and moves during the session. A lot of closely contested games occurred during this session and each team won at least 2 games during the 3 games per team round robin session. During this time, a host of players exhibited strong moves and the defense was intense. The assigned coaches in the camp were coaching as if it was the HS state playoff season. The teams played intense defense and several key timeouts resulted in game changing plays. However, only 1 team went undefeated during the entire session which was led by sensational senior PG Easton Dennis of The Campus HS. However, senior PG Brandon Glover of Howard HS put on an extraordinary show in the final stanza of the round robin versus Easton's team. All players and staff were treated to a great game to end the camp. Most importantly, the camp was determined to be a great success and several players are now on the radar for college basketball in the near future.

Southern Prep Hoops Mission

At Southern Prep Hoops, our goal is to build a great student athlete, and we hope to foster much more in each child than simply proficiency at the game of basketball. We believe that in order to truly be a successful athlete, a young person needs to have well structured leadership, guidance, but most importantly, they need to see that anything is truly possible.

We have been working and fostering this mentality in young people for many years, and it is one of the reasons that our program has been so successful. We hope that you will take a few minutes to view our site, learn our story, and hopefully trust us to help your child reach their full potential.
